Long has the glare from the large windows of College church been a source of inconvenience and discomfort to its congregation. As a remedy for such an annoyance and at the same time to produce a very artistic effect, Mr. R. C. Bristow recommended the use of the new preparation, Windowphaine. The committee charged with effecting improvements on the church acted upon the suggestion with the result that we unhesitatingly recommended the use of this preparation by all who wish to secure an effect that is both rich, pleasing to the eye and gives evidence of durability at a cost indeed moderate.

CARNEGIE'S BIG FUND FOR PEACE

Gives $10,000,000 For Perpetual Trust.

ROOT AT HEAD OF BOARD

Income to Be Used to "Hasten the Abolition of War"—After That "the Next Most Degrading Evil" to Be Attacked.

Andrew Carnegie has announced his gift of $10,000,000 for the promotion of international peace.

The announcement was made at a meeting in Washington of twenty-two of the twenty-seven trustees who have been selected to handle the fund. The scope of the gift is wide. The trustees are left practically unhampered to devote the income, which will amount to $600,000 a year, in the interest of world-wide peace.

"Lines of future action," says Mr.
Carnegie, "cannot be wisely laid down.
Many may have to be tried, and, having full confidence in my trustees, I leave to them the widest discretion as to the measures and policy they shall from time to time adopt, only promising that the one end they shall keep unceasingly in mind until it is attained is the speedy abolition of international war between so-called civilized nations."

Mr. Carnegie's ten million gift is designed as much for the continuance of the peace movement after he is gone as it is for its promotion now.
He says:

"When civilized nations enter into such treaties as named and war is discarded as disgraceful to civilized men, as personal war (duelling) and man selling and buying (slavery) have been discarded within the wide boundaries of our English speaking race, the trustees will please then consider what is the next most degrading remaining evil or evils whose banishment—or what new elevating element or elements if introduced or fostered or both combined—would most advance the progress, elevation and happiness of man, and so on from century to century without end, my trustees of each age shall determine how they can best aid man in his upward march to higher and higher stages of development unceasingly, for now we know that man was created, not with an instinct for his own degradation but imbued with the desire and power for improvement to which, perchance, there may be no limit short of perfection even here in this life on earth.

"Let my trustees therefore ask themselves from time to time, from age to age, how they can best help man in his glorious ascent onward and upward and to this end devote this fund."

The trustees of the fund are: United States Senator Elihu Root, Dr.
Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university; Dr. Henry S.
Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain; Albert K. Smiley, Lake Mohonk, educator and humanitarian; Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard university; James Brown Scott, solicitor of the state department; John W. Foster, former secretary of state; Andrew J.
Montague, former governor of Virginia; William M. Howard, congressman, of Georgia; Judge Thomas Burke, Seattle, Wash.; James L. Slayden, congressman, of Texas; Andrew D. White, former ambassador to Germany; Robert S. Brookings, lawyer, St. Louis; Samuel Mather, banker, steel manufacturer, Cleveland; J. G.
Schmidlapp, railroad man, Cincinnati; Arthur William Foster, regent, University of California; R. A. Francis, banker, Hoboken, N. J.; Charles Macne Tower, former ambassador to Germany and Russia; Oscar Straus, ambassador to Turkey; Austin G. Fox, New York; John B. Caldwell, New York; John Sharp Williams, senator-elect from Mississippi; C. L. Taylor, chairman of the Carnegie Hero Commission; George W. Perkins, of New York; Cleveland H. Dodge and Robert S.
Woodward.

$153,615,000 For Pensions.

The pension appropriation bill for the fiscal year 1912, carrying $153,615,- 000 or $13,000 less than when reported

The reduction was made when the house, on motion of Representative Rainey, of Illinois, reduced the number of pension agencies from eighteen to one, that located in Washington.

An amendment by Representative Smith, of Iowa, was also adopted providing for a simplification of method and consequent economy in the payment of pensions.
